

Eberwhite Wildflowers

Eberwhite Woods Map

Now that you have been out in the woods for a spring wildflower walk with your classmates, try taking your family and friends there! You can teach them how to recognize the different wildflowers in April and May, using this map to find your way around and the wildflower pictures on the back to double-check your identification skills.

As a woods caretaker, please remember to stay on the trail and take only pictures!